

MANY APPEAL FOR CHRISTMAS AID

Closed Factories Given as Cause. Large Number Seeking Help.

NOT ENOUGH TO GO ROUND

Stahley Fund Provides Only $125. Red Cross Will Make Special Effort During Christmas Season.

That more people are appealing for aid this year than ever before in the history of the Eichelberger and Stahley charitable funds is the opinion of Mrs. J. L. Butt, Carlisle street, chairman of these two funds for many years.

Usually the people of Gettysburg desiring aid at Christmas time have waited until about December twentieth to make their appeals but this year the chairman has been besieged for many days by men and women desiring to receive a share of the Stahley and Eichelberger money to be apportioned December 24. In nearly all cases the appealing persons have stated that the shutting down of the local factories have left them without sufficient funds to purchase coal at its current price. A few have stated that they have been unable to get enough to eat.

Fund Is Small
It is the annual custom of the chairman of the Stahley fund to give out money every December 24 amounting to $125. No less than $1.50 nor more than $5 is given to any one family. If the supply of the Stahley fund fails to meet the demand of the deserving poor, Mrs. Butt then draws from the Eichelberger fund which is supposed to be distributed during the other seasons of the year.

These two funds are the only charitable ones existing in Gettysburg and are rarely able to meet the demand of the people desiring help at Christmas time.

It is not the custom of the chairman of the fund to distribute money promiscuously but to determine what persons are most deserving of aid.

Red Cross Helping
The Red Cross, which aids needy families at all times, is planning to do a special work to be carried out during the week before Christmas.

With many wage earners in Gettysburg out of employment and little prospects for improvement of these conditions during the winter, those who are interested in charity work say there will be heavy demands upon these funds, organizations and persons during the next few months.

PUPILS RAISE LARGE SUM

Schools Have Contributed $310.68 To Hospital.

Eighty dollars and eighteen cents was the total amount raised by the Seventh and Eighth grade sections of the Meade School for the Hospital fund, it has been announced.

This was the proceeds of the benefit picture shows they held at the Lincoln Way Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

The other grades of the Meade School have boxes in the class rooms which have not yet been opened but with the report of the grammar school the total reported by the schools of Gettysburg so far reaches $310.68.

CHILDREN GIVE $70

High Street Pupils Far Exceed Expectations of Teachers.

A total of seventy dollars was contributed for the Annie M. Warner hospital endowment fund by the pupils of the High Street school, according to an announcement by Lloyd Hartman, principal of that building. This sum which was given outright by the children and raised by the sale of chickens and eggs far exceeds the expectations of the teachers who placed their goal at the fifty dollar mark.

YOUNG WEAVER GORED BY BULL

Miraculously Escapes With Bruises After Attack By Enraged Animal.

Although he was gored and rolled thirty feet by a 2,000 pound Holstein bull, Walter Weaver, nineteen-year-old son of Jacob Weaver, fortunately escaped with bad bruises, Thursday evening.

Young Weaver lives with his father on the farm of J. Price Oyler and Samuel G. Spangler, located at their fertilizer plant on the Lincoln Highway. Shortly after 5 o'clock the big bull broke out of the garden and the young man went toward the animal to chase him back to the barnyard. Instead of turning toward the barn the bull attacked young Weaver, throwing him a considerable distance.

Charles Weaver, younger brother of Walter, who was working on the railroad tracks nearby, seized a piece of rubber hose used to connect freight cars and beat the bull until it ceased its attack upon the youth on the ground. Further aid was given by a Lincoln Highway automobile traveler, who rushed to the assistance of the two boys and then helped carry Walter Weaver into the house, where it was found his injuries consisted only of bruises.

HIGH LEAVES FOR READING

Local Team Will Have Hard First Game.

Coach Walter D. Reynolds, Captain George W. Hunter and players William Scott, David Oyler, Glenn Bream, Wilbur Weikert, Raymond Robert and Robert Martin left at one o'clock this afternoon for Reading, where they will open their basketball season with the High school team of that city.

This is an unusually hard game to open with as with the exception of Captain Hunter all the men are playing their first high school game. While neither Coach Reynolds or Captain Hunter look for victory they are confident that they will hold their stronger opponents to a low score. Reading won second place in the Central Pennsylvania Interscholastic League last year.

Coach Reynolds announced the following as his Varsity choice:

Hunter, forward; Oyler, forward; G. Bream, center; Scott, guard; Weikert, guard.

The team will return by automobile immediately after the game.

THREE MEN ENLIST

Town Boys Join Artillery. Sergeant Partia Here.

Sergeant Ira Partin, in charge of the army recruiting unit in this district with headquarters in Chambersburg, was in Gettysburg today on a tour of inspection. He recently established Private Paul L. Stone, former Sergeant Major, in the 12th Infantry, 28th Division, to be in charge of recruiting work here.

Three Adams county men enlisted in the service of Uncle Sam this week, the Sergeant declared. Albert J. Davis and Earl W. Hansford, both of Gettysburg, have been sent to the 83d Field Artillery, now stationed at Camp Knox, for training. Daniel J. March, of Mummasburg, has enlisted in the air service and is stationed at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds at Aberdeen, Maryland.

WAS IN BURNING CAR

Abbotstown Man Broke Through Top Of Altland Machine.

To be hemmed in a burning automobile and have to break through the rear portion of the top was the experience Thursday of George Gise, of Abbotstown. He was sitting in the machine of Charles R. Altland when it caught fire due to the fact that a garage employee used a lantern to see if the gasoline tank was full.

The fire burned only the top and cushions of the Altland car but caused considerable excitement for the moment.

HAS GOOD RECORD AS DRY OFFICER

Rudisill Secured Number of Convictions Before Federal Court.

PREACHER AGENT SPEAKS

Says Pennsylvania Has as Much Liquor Now as Before Volstead Act Became Operative.

A. E. Rudisill, former student here, who is now a prohibition enforcement officer with headquarters in Harrisburg, has been complimented by Rev. R. E. Johnson, one of the leading Federal prohibition enforcement agents in Pennsylvania, for the fearless manner in which he carried on the work in this part of the state. "I don't doubt," said Mr. Johnson, "but that the conviction of a number of men in the Federal Court will have a good effect on any budding brewers."

"Pennsylvania is as full now, if not fuller of liquor than when the Volstead act became operative. The Wyoming Valley and the area around Wilkes-Barre are the worst places, but the rest of the State is not far behind, and its all due for a good, thorough clean-up very shortly," said the dry officer.

To Strike at Heart

"The heart of the trade is the vital point that we must attack if we are to attain success; the manufacturing center, if you please. What does it matter if we rounded up 1,000 saloons, if the manufacturers are permitted to keep on turning out their barrels of rotten liquor."

"Of course, there must be some National legislation on the permit question. That is where a great deal of trouble is coming from, you see, because so many people have found it a comparatively simple matter to get a permit and take their whisky out of bond. That must be stopped and if we in Pennsylvania know anything about it, it will be stopped!"

Promises Active Winter

"This matter of liquor for the drug trade has been a source of great trouble, too, since a number of the bootleggers immediately assumed that the provision giving druggists the right to sell in medicinal quantities was a signal for them to boom their business in great shape. They are learning to their sorrow that their judgment in this case was wrong."

"I can promise you some very active work in Pennsylvania this winter, and it will not be long before some startling raids are pulled off. These fellows have had their warnings, and I shall not be lenient. The judges have warned them, too, and a second offense is not going to be met with a comparatively small fine. It's going to be a case of several years for the more flagrant violators."

STICK IN TANEYTOWN ROAD

Automobile Drivers Have Failed To Avoid Bad Spot.

Residents of the Taneytown road have been busily engaged during the last few days pulling automobiles out of a muddy stretch situated between the Granite lane and Round Top. Unaware of the fact that work on the new macadam road there was not finished this fall, automobile drivers have neglected to avoid the spot which is in an almost impassable condition.

WAR VETERAN DIES AT EIGHTY SIX

Isaiah Test, Menallen Township. Finally Succumbs to Dropsy.

Following an illness of four years due to dropsy and heart trouble, Isaiah Test, aged 86 years, died at the home of his son, Charles E. Test, Menallen township, Thursday.

Mr. Test, who was a veteran of the Civil War, was able to be about despite his illness. He was apparently in his usual health Thursday when the fatal attack came while sitting in a chair at the home of his son and he suddenly expired.

Pennsylvania's 103d Volunteer Infantry was the outfit with which the veteran served nearly a year during the Civil War.

He was born and raised in York county and on moving to Adams took up the trade of millwright. He lived in Menallen township, where he died, twenty years and in Bendersville eighteen years.

Two sons, Charles E. Test, Menallen township, and William E. Test, of York, survive the aged man who was the last of the family of eight reared by the late Jacob and Mary Test, of York county. Thirteen grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren also survive him.

Funeral services Monday, meeting at the house at 10 o'clock. Services in Bendersville Lutheran Church, conducted by Rev. T. C. Hesson, of Ardenstville, assisted by Rev. W. D. E. Scott, of Bendersville.

OVER THOUSAND JOIN RED CROSS

Many Enrolled Since Roll Call Ended in This County.

TOTAL MAY REACH 1,200

Abbotstown And Bendersville Lead Towns in Response to Appeal For Supporters of Red Cross.

Due to the increased efforts of the Red Cross workers representing the branch organizations of the county a large number of new members and renewals of memberships have been reported to the secretary of the Adams County Red Cross since the fourth annual roll call officially ended on Thanksgiving Day. The report which is not complete shows that more than a thousand have enrolled under the banner of the organization whose wartime motto was "The Greatest Mother of Them All." The phrase used in practically all the posters this year was "Still The Greatest Mother of Them All."

When the time allotted for the canvass which was carried on throughout the United States expired the total enrollment in this county was but little over five hundred. Since then the canvassers have continued to work and as a result this number has been doubled and there is good prospect that the county can report more than twelve hundred members by the first of the year. More than a thousand 1921 members were listed in the report sent in to Red Cross headquarters in Philadelphia from the county secretary, Miss Margaret McMillan Thursday evening. Several towns have made no report at all since the roll call started and other sections have sent in only incomplete lists up to this time.

Abbotstown and Bendersville seem to have taken the lead in enrollments in the Red Cross this year basing the figures on population. In Abbotstown where George Baker, county commissioners' clerk, was the chairman, one hundred and seven joined the organization, and in Bendersville, with Robert Eldon and Mrs. Harry Raffensperger as the leaders, eighty seven paid the membership fee. HARDING CONFERS WITH MR. HUGHES

Discusses Plan For An Association of Nations in Detail.

(By Associated Press)

Marion, Ohio, Dec. 10.—President-elect Harding began his conferences on the plan for an association of nations by a long talk today with Charles E. Hughes, former Republican nominee, in which the whole question of American relations with Europe was surveyed in detail.

Afterwards neither would reveal whether any conclusions were reached. Mr. Harding declining to talk about the subject and Mr. Hughes saying merely that "important questions" of foreign policy had been considered in sight of changing world conditions. He added that the solution undoubtedly would be found in the utterances of Mr. Harding during his campaign.

While the conference was in progress Colonel George Harvey, the New York publisher, arrived here unannounced and later motored to Columbus with Mr. Harding and Mr. Hughes where the three had lunch with H. M. Daugherty, the president-elect's closest political adviser.

Colonel Harvey, who spent two weeks here while Senator Harding was formulating his League of Nations policy in the campaign, may remain for several days at Harding's headquarters here.

The fact that Mr. Hughes was the first Republican leader to be summoned in consultation by the President-elect revived rumors that he was being strongly considered for secretary of state. There was no authority evident to support this report, however, during his visit here.

NEW TEACHING METHOD

Grammar School Pupils Hold Socialized Recitation.

A departure from the routine method of teaching was inaugurated Thursday afternoon in the Grammar School at the Meade School when the pupils conducted a socialized recitation under the leadership of Frank Gardner and Kathrine Hartman, both members of the eighth grade.

The occasion was the celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the arrival of the Pilgrims to this country. The history of these people was traced in England, Holland and then to America. The observance of the first Thanksgiving Day and the story of Miles Standish were included in the discussion.

A socialized recitation is one of the latest steps in modern education. It is held under the direction of the students who conduct the class. This has been tried in numerous schools throughout the country with excellent success and will probably be held often in the local schools.

Many parents of the pupils were present for the afternoon exercises.

THREE HANGED BY MASKED MOB

Murder Suspects Lynched in Record Time By Californians.

Overpower Jail Officers And Take Prisoners to Cemetery. Everything in Readiness to Hang Gangsters.

(By Associated Press)

Santa Rosa, Cal., Dec. 10.—George Boyd, Terence Finn and Charles Salento, accused of having murdered Sheriff J. A. Petray, of Sonoma county, and Detective Miles Jackson and Lester M. Dorman here last Sunday were taken from the county jail early today and hanged.

A mob of about 100 men all wearing black masks entered the jail, overpowered the officials there and removed the prisoners to waiting automobiles. Fifteen machines carried the party. They moved quickly down the street to a cemetery, three blocks beyond the city limits. Ropes had been prepared. The men were taken from the machines and hanged to an oak tree inside the cemetery. Headlights of three automobiles were used to light the tree selected for the hanging. Members of the mob were stationed to prevent intrusion. The guards and many of the mob were armed.

Not more than five minutes were required by the mob to enter the jail and overpower the officers and remove the prisoners. Within fifteen minutes the three alleged gangsters and murderers had been hanged. They waited another fifteen minutes while the bodies dangled from the tree in the glare of the automobile lights. The mob waited to make certain their grim task was completed then its members departed leaving the bodies swinging in the darkness.

All had been prearranged even to acetylene torches to burn the locks off the cell doors in the jail.

Officials today said no members of the mob had been identified.

MISSING PASTOR RETURNS HOME

Miss Hennenberg, of Congregation, Also Comes Back to Passaic.

PREACHER IS FORGIVEN

It is Report He Will Be Elected Pastor of Church Again But Girl Will be Asked to Resign.

New York, December 10.—Rev. Cornelius Densel, pastor of the Netherlands Reformed Church at Passaic, N. J., who disappeared on November 12 at the same time that Miss Trina Hennenberg, a member of the church and prominent in the sewing circle, left her home in the same city, Passaic, returned to his wife and eight children late Wednesday night. Miss Hennenberg returned home also. She said the preacher went to Passaic together in a taxicab from New York after an official of the church had met them here. When the car reached Passaic the Rev. Densel alighted in front of his home, after which the taxicab continued on until the girl's home had been reached.

Neither Rev. Densel, Miss Hennenberg nor any of the members of their families would divulge any information regarding the places visited by the pair, or the reasons for their disappearance and return, although it is known that their families received postcards from them mailed at Toronto and Niagara Falls.

On a Personal Trip
When newspaper men asked Miss Hennenberg last night for details of the affair, she handed them the following typewritten statement:

"To Whom It May Concern:
"I have been away on a personal trip and have now returned."

(Signed)

"MISS TRINA HENNEBERG"

The Rev. Densel would not come to the front door of his home when inquirers called to ascertain some of the details of his disappearance, but his 14-year-old son, Benjamin, handed them a typewritten statement prepared by the minister's 26-year-old son, Richard.

"Simply As a Stranger"

"Last Monday evening the congregation met to select a new pastor. There was a slight difference of opinion, and it was decided to hold a consistory meeting Wednesday night. To this meeting those who held differences of opinion were asked to come and state them to the consistory. My father, my brother Cornelius and I went to the meeting. As my father came in the forty odd men present seemed surprised. In the Holland language my father made a statement.

"Its English translation is about as follows: 'I do not come to you as your pastor, or as a member of the congregation, but simply as a stranger, and I hope that you will forgive the mistake I made in resigning from the church so abruptly.'

His Wife Glad

"Speaking for my family, my father's explanation of absence is satisfactory to my mother and to us."

Mrs. Densel said:

"My husband is back and I am very glad to have him home again."

Henry Dross, secretary of the church consistory, said that the Rev. Densel had not been admitted to the meeting of that body when he entered the church Tuesday night, but that he had made his statement to members of the church gathered in the Sunday School room. During the progress of the statement by Rev. Densel the members of the congregation, the minister and his sons wept. It was reported in church circles that the Rev. Densel would again be elected pastor of the congregation, but that Miss Hennenberg and the members of her family would be asked to resign from the church. The minister told his friends that he was brought back to Passaic by an act of God; that the words of the Lord kept recurring to him as he "walked the streets of strange cities."

MARTIAL LAW FOR IRELAND

Premier Says Murder And Outrage Must Be Stopped.

(By Associated Press)

London, Dec. 10.—Martial law to be applied to "certain areas of Ireland" to put down "murder and outrage" and move to bring about a conference between the government and Sinn Fein leaders on the Irish situation was announced by Premier Lloyd George in the House of Commons today. In announcing this double policy of the government the premier declared under martial law persons found possessing arms after a certain date or an unauthorized person wearing a uniform would be punishable by the death penalty. On the other hand to facilitate negotiations the premier announced the government had decided to give safe conduct to Sinn Fein members of the House of Commons who had not been involved in the commission of serious crimes.

SUGGEST MEN FOR THE NEW CABINET

Farm Bureau to Confer About Appointment of Secretary of Agriculture.

Indianapolis, Ind., December 10.—Appointment of a committee representing the American Farm Bureau Federation to confer with President-elect Harding regarding the selection of a secretary of agriculture was authorized at a meeting of the federation's new executive board.

President J. L. Howard of the federation, who was authorized to name the committee, said no action was taken indorsing anyone for the cabinet appointment. He announced to the board that the President-elect had invited the federation to send a committee to him, promising not to determine upon anyone until he had conferred with the federation.

The committee, which will be named later, will probably meet Mr. Harding at Washington soon after Christmas, it was said. Names of several possible appointees were discussed by the board, but no formal action taken regarding any. Among those mentioned were Herbert Hoover, former food administrator; Henry Wallace, Des Moines, Iowa; Senator Capper, of Kansas; Governor Lowden, of Illinois; and Harold G. Powell, manager of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange.

Decision also was made by the board to extend the federation's work toward the development of co-operating marketing by the farmers of the country. It was decided to choose a director of the movement and for him to select assistants, each to give his entire attention to different commodities.

ARENDTSTVILLE

Arendtville—Rev. Isaiah B. Crist, who spent the former part of his life in this locality, but who now resides in St. Thomas, Franklin county, spent several days here recently with friends and then went to the home of his son, Dr. Crist, in New Jersey, where he expected to visit for a short time. He retired in the evening as usual and when he did not respond to the call for breakfast his door was opened and the room was found to be filled with gas. Rev. Mr. Crist was unconscious when found and physicians who were summoned worked for several hours before he regained consciousness.

Dr. Samuel E. Lower and Dr. Thomas, of Pittsburgh, came to the home of Heber E. Lower here and were taken by him to the Arendtville Deer Camp to hunt deer.

Messrs. Carmon Crum, Luther Raffensperger and James Crum each shot a buck deer. They belong to the Arendtville camp.

WILSON'S REPLY CAUSES REGRET

League Assembly Thought He Would Aid in Disarmament.

CANADA WINS HER POINT

Bulgaria Admitted to League of Nations. Marshal Foch Declares Country is Sincere in Intentions.

Geneva, Dec. 10.—President Wilson's negative reply to the League of Nations' invitation to name an unofficial delegate to co-operate with the commission to be appointed by the Assembly to discuss disarmament has caused great disappointment here. The chief desire of the Assembly members seems to be to maintain as many points of contact as possible with the United States, and it was thought the disarmament investigation afforded an opportunity of which President Wilson could take advantage without committing himself.

Wilson's decisions regarding the Argentine boundaries have not been received here. It is thought in circles that his reply has more likely been sent to London or Paris, since it is a matter for consideration by the Supreme Council of the Allies, rather than by the League of Nations.

Canada, whose delegation has made a great impression on the Assembly, scored again Thursday when it secured elimination of the provision in the technical committee's report for permanent finance, transit and health commissions. The Assembly, impressed by the growing expenses of the League, and the International Labor Bureau accepted the Canadian view.

The Canadians argued it was preferable to work with temporary commissions having consulting power only.

End Assembly Not in Sight

The prospects of a prolonged stay in Geneva are beginning to worry the delegates and officials of the assembly. The members of the delegations are all making every effort in committees or full sessions to increase the speed of their work, but with little success thus far. After two days spent entirely upon the report of the technical committee, President Hymans, of the assembly, yesterday made an earnest appeal to the delegates to cut their remarks short.

President Hymans held over the heads of the delegates the menace of two sessions daily and advancing the hour of the morning session by half an hour. A number of the delegates have arranged to leave Geneva Friday or Saturday of next week. Meantime, there remains to be discussed of the report of the committee on the admission of new States, and also disarmament, mandates and the International Court, besides a number of smaller questions.

Good Word For Bulgars

The admission of Bulgaria to the League of Nations has been voted by the commission on the admission of new States. This action was taken after a report submitted by Marshal Foch had been read, in which the marshal declared that Bulgaria had made several efforts to live up to the treaty terms. Even the "little entente" countries, which had been strong in their opposition to Bulgaria, voted for her admission.

The commission also decided to permit Austria, Albania and Georgia to participate in the work of the technical commissions. Lichtenstein was refused admission, but will be allowed representation of its interests in the League by Switzerland.

The Baltic States were not admitted, and the only remaining question is the disposition of Lithuania.

SEVER THUMB OF HUNTER

Injury To Oliver Shindledacker Grows More Serious.

An injury to a deer hunter that was at first thought to be trivial, became serious and at 1.00 o'clock this morning two Gettysburg physicians were summoned to near Mount Carmel Church, above Orrtanna, to bring Oliver Shindledacker here for the purpose of amputating his right thumb. Last week Shindledacker accidentally shot himself in the hand when his gun discharged when it bumped against a tree he was descending. The hunter had been in the tree for the purpose of keeping a lookout for deer.

Since the time of the accident Shindledacker's injured thumb became infected to the point that amputation was necessary. His hand is also badly infected with blood poison at the present time.

Shindledacker, who is about twenty three years old, is a son of Mrs. Margaret Shindledacker, of near Mount Carmel. Several years ago he moved to Waynesboro and returned to the home of his mother for the deer season in South Mountain.

SMITH WOMAN WAS SEEN IN JUAREZ

Father of Murder Suspect Believes His Daughter Will Come Home.

El Paso, Tex., December 10.—"If I could go to Clara this morning I would go and take you with me," Miss Smith's father said to a correspondent of the Associated Press. "If I could, I would take you to her and ask her to make a statement correcting many things about an interview which we believe was unfounded and about the diary which we do not believe was hers. She is not here. You may look for yourself."

Mr. Smith dodged the question whether she had been to his home, but repeatedly declared that at present he did not know where she was. "I believe when she learns that the warrant is here," he said, "she will come back to us. I want her to come to the house so we can go with her to make bond for her. I know she will come clear. As to who did the shooting, I cannot say, but I know my daughter is innocent."

Sheriff Orndorff, of El Paso, has received a warrant from Ardmore, Okla., calling for the apprehension of Clara Smith.

Deputy Sheriff John Boone said Miss Smith was in Juarez December 2. Boone said he notified his superiors of this and that they telegraphed the authorities at Ardmore. Nothing was heard from them until last Monday, he said, when they acknowledged receipt of the telegram, but did not send a warrant for her arrest.

AMERICA DUMPING GROUND
Knutson Says Radicals Being Sent Here.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Dec. 10.—Charges that foreign governments are financing the movement of radicals from several countries in Europe to the United States were made today by Representative Knutson, Republican, Minnesota, who opened debate in the house on the Johnson bill placing a two-year restriction immigration.
"Spain is a seething mass of anarchy," Mr. Knutson declared, "and its government is dumping on the United States. We have more now than we know what to do with. We ought to deport them." He added that if tonnage were available from ten to fifteen millions of Europeans, could migrate to America within a year.

ACQUITTAL IN PENN HALL CASE

Much Interest in Trial of Man
Charged With Insulting Girls.

Offering an airtight alibi, supported by testimony of witnesses agreeing in minutest detail, Benjamin Smith, 19-year-old married man of Chambersburg, Wednesday took the witness stand in his own defense on charges of open lewdness and under grueling cross examination held steadfastly to his story that he was not in the vicinity of Penn Hall at the time students at the school were insulted, refuting testimony of students and teachers of the institution that he was the man offering the insults. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and directed that the county pay the costs.

Thus ends a case which because of its nature and interest involved attracted widespread attention. The trial throughout was characterized by extraordinarily clear and concise testimony and was deftly handled by counsel for both sides. In his address to the jury John W. Hoke, counsel for Smith, stated that his "hat was off" to girls who would come into court, embarrassing as it is, and "do their part in efforts to bring to justice the perpetrator of such a dastardly deed as that charged against his client."

BRIBED OFFICERS WITH LIQUORS

Scandals Had Plan of Operation
That Worked, it is Said.

Charles H. Scandals is charged with having operated in the vicinity of Hagerstown and in fact is under indictment by the last grand jury for having so operated says a Hagerstown newspaper in commenting on his recent activity. It is charged that he was the person who had a large quantity of liquor stored in the Simon Sheffer barn on the Middleburg pike.

The giving or offering of gifts to officers seems to have been a part of the plan of operation. Some officers of Hagerstown testified before the last grand jury in the court that four had each received a case of liquor and while some of them professed not to know where the liquor came from, yet they had good reasons for believing that it was some of the liquor which was stored in the Sheffer barn or that it had some connection with the owners of that liquor. It seems that the givers were shrewd enough to offer the officers the liquor with the stipulation that they come after it. Three of the four Hagerstown and county officers, who received liquor, it is understood, did go after it. The fourth officer did not, his being brought to him by the other officers.

HIGHWAYMAN CHARITABLE

Steuenville, Ohio, Dec. 9.—Daniel Cable, a pottery worker, reported to the police here Tuesday night that a robber who held him up while he was enroute to his home, offered to give him $10 after the highwayman discovered that he was penniless.

Cable said that the robber leaped upon him, overpowered him and then went through his pockets. Finding no money, Cable said the highwayman pulled out a roll of bills and offered to give him $10, saying "here brother, you need it worse than I do." Cable said he was too surprised to accept the money.

TO STAGE GREAT ROAD CONFERENCE

State Will Join in Discussing
Highway Building
Problems.

Officials of the Highway Departments of Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey and Maryland, and of the Bureau of Surveys, city of Philadelphia, together with the Bureau of Public Roads, Washington, will co-operate in a highway engineering conference to be held in Philadelphia, February 14, to February 19, 1921. This conference will be under the auspices of the Department of Civil Engineering, University of Pennsylvania, of which the Professor in charge is Milo S. Ketchum.

The Advisory Committee is composed of Colonel W. D. Uhler, Chief Engineer of the Pennsylvania State Highway Department; Charles M. Upham, Delaware Highway Department; John M. Mackall, Maryland State Roads Commission; T. J. Wasser, New Jersey Highway Commission, and George S. Webster, Chief of the Bureau of Surveys, Philadelphia.

Among the representatives of the Pennsylvania State Highway Department who will address the conference are George H. Biles, Assistant State Highway Commissioner; W. R. Wolfinger, Assistant Construction Engineer; A. H. Sauerbaum, Construction Superintendent; H. S. Mattimore, Engineer of Tests, and E. H. Hiltz, Principal Assistant to the Chief Engineer.

It has recently been estimated that more than eight hundred million dollars is now available for highway construction under the control of engineers. Properly to design and supervise the construction of roads will require a very large number of men especially trained in highway engineering. With the increased demand for engineers by the railroads, construction companies and industries, the normal supply of technically trained civil engineers will be entirely inadequate. Due to the lack of technically trained engineers, there will be excellent opportunities in highway engineering for men who have had some practical experience in highway construction and who, in addition, have had training in the elements of road engineering and the tests and inspection of materials used in the construction of roads.

STILL NEED TEACHERS

Shortage Deplored by Federal Education Commissioner.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Between 300,000 and 400,000 children were deprived of schooling last year as a direct result of the shortage of teachers, according to estimates made by P. P. Claxton, Federal Commissioner of Education, in his annual report made public Wednesday night. No relief for the situation is seen by the commissioner, who added that while from 100,000 to possibly 150,000 new teachers would be needed during the coming year, "we shall have at the outside 30,000 prepared teachers to fill vacancies, or a deficit of at least 80,000."

Of even greater moment than the actual shortage, the report said, was the increase in sub-standard "instructors." More than half the 350,000 teachers of the Nation, it added, are not prepared according to any reasonable standard for the work of teaching.

WOMAN FINED FOR TALKING

Sunbury, Pa., Dec. 10.—Because she is alleged to have "talked like a phonograph" and posed as September Morn, Mrs. Ellen Shelbert, of Bellair, near here, was fined $25 and the costs of prosecution in criminal court here. She was further warned by the judge to remain away from court in the future or he would send her to jail.

Charges against the woman were brought by the neighbors. She was declared to be a "common scold" in the suit filed against her.

EVERYDAY FOOD.

It is the ordinary everyday things which are the dishes most of us wish to know about; those we serve every day, but will give us variety.

Tomato Cream Toast.—Melt three tablespoons of butter and blend it with four tablespoons of flour. Pour in gradually one and one-half cups of strained stewed tomatoes; add a speck of soda. Season with salt and pepper. Add three-fourths of a cupful of hot cream and pour over well buttered toast. Serve promptly.

Sausage Baked With Apples.—Butter a deep granite dish and place in it four apples cut in halves with the skin side down. Place over the dish a wire rack or toaster and cover with sausages which have been well pricked. Cook from twenty to thirty minutes. Remove the sausages to a hot platter and surround with the apples.

Luncheon Potatoes.—Chop rather fine enough potatoes to make a quart. Melt three tablespoons of butter or drippings in a saucepan and mix with the potatoes. Add two tablespoons of flour and one cupful of milk. Stir well, cover and cook slowly for ten minutes. Add two chopped hard-boiled eggs. Season well and serve.

Chocolate Pudding.—Soak one pint of bread crumbs in one quart of hot milk for half an hour. Melt two squares of bitter chocolate and add to the milk two-thirds of a cupful of sugar, a little salt, vanilla and two slightly beaten eggs. Mix all with the bread and bake in a moderate oven three-fourths of an hour. Serve with:

Ginger Cookies.—Take two cupfuls of molasses, one cupful of lard, one cupful of sugar, two-thirds of a cupful of sour milk, one tablespoonful of ginger, one teaspoonful of soda dissolved in the milk and two teaspoonfuls put into the flour. Mix with as little flour as possible. Chill on ice before rolling. Bake in a moderate oven. If wanted quite fancy, frost with a boiled frosting or with confectioner's sugar mixed with milk.

SHELLS FOR EGGS

The Department of Agriculture reports that an experiment run at the New York State College of Agriculture at Cornell University for a period of 20 weeks, showed where a flock of 10 Lophorn hens, fed crushed oyster shells in addition to their other feed during that time yielded 508 eggs, while a pen of the same number and breed of hens, fed their regular ration without the crushed oyster shells, yielded only 137 eggs in the same length of time, showing an increase of about 75 per cent in the production of eggs where crushed shells were fed. This experiment proves the value of the use of crushed oyster shells in the ration of the laying hen. Get them at

BASKETBALL NOW HOLDS INTEREST OF LOCAL SPORT ENTHUSIASTS

Selection of College Varsity Will Depend Largely On Showing of Players Against Drexel Institute Here Saturday. Reading a Tough Opponent For High.

(By C. William Duncan)

As the chilly western blasts sweep over deserted Nixon field the thoughts of Gettysburg sport lovers are turning toward the little white gymnasium which for many years has been the scene of thrilling contests of basketball—king of indoor sports throughout this section of Pennsylvania. Here every afternoon and every evening athletes from High School and College are preparing to battle for positions on the Varsity fives which open their seasons this week. The thud of the pigskin as it leaves the toe of a punting fullback has given place to the swish of the net as a goal is caged from midfloor by a Varsity player, giving added impetus to the attack of his team and causing consternation in the ranks of the drooping Reserves.

Football is a great college sport and has a host of local followers but there are many who prefer the fast cage game with its machine like passing and unexpected goals from difficult angles.

Unlike in football Gettysburg College has long been a basketball leader among the smaller institutions of Pennsylvania. Doyle Leathers, once a star here, is a coach of splendid ability and has moulded together combinations that have won as high as thirteen out of eighteen games with at least half of the contests played away from home. The greatest scoring machine in the history of Gettysburg appeared here in the winters of 1915 and 1916 when Mose Campbell, Benny Williams and the late Bill Mahaffie were in their prime.

Saturday night local fans will be able to size up the opportunities for the 1920-1921 season when the Varsity quintet lines up against Drexel Institute of Philadelphia. Left form last year's team Coach Leathers has Captain Miller, Mundorff, Stewart, Gingerich and Zeigler while a host of new material appears in the persons of Gantz, Dean, Bender, Hutchinson, Stubel, Paige and others.

Captain "Mike" Miller is assured of a place at center while Gingerich and Zeigler will be difficult to replace at guards. Mundorff and Stewart are playing the Varsity forwards at the present time but some of the new men, specially Gantz, are showing marked ability. Selection of a Varsity five will depend largely upon the showing of the various men in the Drexel game.

HIGH SCHOOL MEETS TARTER

Coach Walter Reynolds and his High School five start off with their hardest assignment of the year when they play Reading High away from home Friday night. Reading had on one of the fastest scholastic teams in the state last year and all their stars, including Christian and Freedman are back this season.

Taking all things into consideration a victory at Reading is considered out of the question but the Maroon and White players will exert every effort to hold the score as low as possible. Captain Hunter, Oyler and Robert, Gise, Scott, Glenn Bream, Clifford Bream, Martin and Weikert are among the men trying for positions on the team.

High's first home game will be against Westminster, December 17.

FUMES FROM CAR KILL MAN

Jacob Stair, president of the Jacob Stair Company, York, dry goods wholesaler, was asphyxiated by the fumes from the exhaust of his automobile Wednesday afternoon. His body was found in the garage at the rear of his home by a servant. Stair was 65 years old and had been in business in York many years.

HOW CANADA IS PUTTING THE JOBLESS ON THE JOB

Canada has taken the employment problem by the horns and is making that unruly thing behave.

Canada is a big country. Her distances are magnificent, but not so to the man who has traveled far to seek work that rumor says is waiting and then finds the vacancy filled. Private employment agencies are none too particular about ascertaining whether their patrons will get work. A call comes in for a certain number of men, that number is set without taking into consideration the possibility that several other agencies may be filing the same demand. Result is disappointment for the men, a glut of labor at one point with, very likely, resultant shortage at another.

Canada's solution was to abolish private agencies and to establish a free governmental service. Seventy-five bureaus, strategically placed in every province, were opened right across the Dominion. These are in daily touch with each other and with headquarters office in Ottawa. The superintendent of any provincial bureau is fully conversant with the employment situation in every other province.

These bureaus receive applications from employers and employees. The superintendent's first task is to square the local situation—to fill the needs of local employers and to provide jobs for local workers in their own district. If he has not enough applicants on his list to fill local needs, he looks over the lists of the nearest bureaus. Should bureau No. 2 show an available supply of the particular labor wanted, he gets in touch with No. 2 by wire and ascertains if the supply is still available and, if so, to send along the number of hands wanted. The same procedure applies to placing surplus labor. Applicants for work are placed as near home as possible, unless they desire to go further afield.

That the service is appreciated and successful is shown by results. In the four week period, Sept. 11th to Oct. 2nd of this year, 39,205 applicants asked for work, 59,701 employers asked for workers and 33,995 applicants were placed in permanent employment besides many placed in casual jobs. A great part of Canada's army has been re-established in civil life, through the aid of this service, which has been a potent factor in the economic readjustment of the Dominion from war conditions.

DISTRIBUTING TROUT

Many Counties Receive Fish From Hatcheries.

Trout will be distributed from State fish hatcheries to the streams of Pennsylvania as long as the streams remain open, declared Commissioner of Fisheries Nathan R. Butler Thursday. "It has not been often that we have been able to distribute trout in December and we hope the weather will last, because we hope to get out many trout able to take care of themselves," said he. It is also the plan to get out catfish and blue-gill sunfish.

During November, approximately 200,000 young trout were sent out from the hatcheries; brook trout being sent to Blair, Bradford, Bucks, Centre, Chester, Clarion, Columbia, Crawford, Clearfield, Elk, Fayette, Jefferson, Lackawanna, Lycoming, Potter, Somerset, Tioga and Venango.

POOR BLOOD IS JUST LIKE SLOW POISON

Makes You Feel Lazy and Discouraged. You Get Nothing Done.

Pepto-Mangan Purifies

Tune Up Your Blood With It. Notice the Difference with Rich, Red Blood in Your Veins.

The man or woman or the child with a sickly-looking complexion, a pale wan face, has blood that is filled with poison. Instead of rich red blood coursing through their veins, they are trying to get along with blood that is weak and thin. It doesn't carry life-giving qualities through the body. You see those men and women every day. They are so tired. Their shoulders droop. They slouch. It is all they can do to get around.

As soon as you begin to feel that way take Pepto-Mangan, the well-known blood tonic. It will clear away the poisons and make your blood rich with red corpuscles.

Pepto-Mangan is prepared in both liquid and tablet form. One has the same medicinal value as the other. Take either kind you prefer. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." The full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," should be on the package.

A Yuletide Blessing

By Ralph Hamilton

CHRISTMAS CHEER was in the air everywhere. The sleigh bells had a special tone for Ned Graham as he sped over the glittering snow homeward bound, the melodious clang of the skates along the river course made perfect music to his enraptured ears, the stars appeared to shine with a new luster—and all for him, he almost fancied, on this the first Christmas eve he could remember where peace on earth, good will to men had a real vitalizing meaning, and himself a part of it!

Left an orphan at eight, for five years he had been the slave of a miserly old beggar. Then Victor Wade, a distant relative, and his wife Alice had taken Ned to their humble little home. "You have no children of your own and a blessing will come to you for caring for this poor outcast," the village clergyman had told them, and indeed his words had come true. He nestled down into their hearts and gave them an obedience and love.

And Ned as well shared the shadow that hovered over their lives. Alice was the only daughter of the richest man in Broompton. She had married Wade against the wishes of Martin Brill, who had from that hour shut both of them out of his life.

"He can't treat my dear, good mother that way!" declared Ned stoutly to a chum. "Some day I'm going to let him know how mean he is to the best two people who ever lived."

Mr. and Mrs. Wade had gone to a Christmas entertainment and Ned was speeding homeward full of holiday plans.

Dashing through the gateway Ned came to a sudden halt. A light showed in the parlor, the porch window of the room was open, and plainly visible inside was a rough-looking man tossing over the packages grouped under the little tree.

"It's a burglar!" gasped the startled Ned, "and stealing our Christmas presents! Hey, you! get out of there or I'll shoot you full of bullets!" and A Rough Appearing Man Tossing Over the Packages.

Ned ran to the window, drew a revolver from its case and presented it in menacing view.

The intruder turned, dashed from the room into the hall and disappeared. Valiantly triumphant, Ned went back to the parlor, for the first moment noticing a small satchel lying open on a chair. It somewhat thrilled him to observe strange-looking articles of steel within.

"Burglars' tools!" whispered Ned, fairly awed. "And here's a great big wallet stuffed full of papers and bank notes, and right across it is stamped the name of 'Martin Brill' in gilt letters. Say! This fellow must have robbed the old man before he came here."

Half an hour later Ned stood in the garden of the Brill home. Gazing into the one lighted room of the place he saw Brill tied to a chair and striving to dislodge a gag in his mouth. He was frantic; he tore his hair; incoherently he babbled forth the visit of a night marauder as Ned released him. "You're the Wade boy, aren't you?" he quavered. "You've done me a good turn. Do another. Call the police."

"Say," interposed Ned, "if you'll come with me I'll see that you get your wallet back."

"What—why—come with you—where?"

"To your daughter's home. A funny thing has happened, and if you want your wallet back you've got to go with me there."

Half distracted, fully mystified, Martin Brill consented to the strange proposal. Arrived, Ned told his story, produced the wallet and restored it to its owner.

"Oh! had you won my eternal gratitude?" cried the delighted old man, but paused abruptly, his eyes fixed upon a decorated framed portrait of himself.

"Mr. Wade got the holly for that," said Ned, "and your daughter trimmed it. They do that every year."

Martin Brill sat staring at the portrait, a dim mist crossing his eyes. Ned stole quietly from the room as he heard footsteps on the front porch.

"Sh-h!" he whispered, reaching in. "Mother, you've got a visitor."

"Why, who is it?" asked Alice surprisedly.

"Santa Claus, I'm thinking," was the prompt response—and it was.

Questions.

1. How is Rabies contracted?
2. How should a dog bite be treated?
3. What should be done with a dog suspected of Rabies?

RABIES OR HYDROPHOBIA

Almost every one knows the story of the heroic blacksmith, who, to save the village children fought and killed the "Mad Dog" with his bare hands. Severely bitten in the struggle, to protect others from injury in case madness should come upon him, with his own hands he riveted the iron band around his ankle and forged the chain which bound him to his anvil. Grateful neighbors brought him food and stayed to keep him company during the uncertain hours and days which must pass until his fate would be known. When his wounds healed rapidly, they wanted to file off his shackles, but the brave smith refused. Soon he noticed a numbness of his limbs and tingling sensations. It was difficult for him to swallow, then came thirst—unendurable thirst—that could not be assuaged, for even the sight of water was sufficient to cause violent spasms of the muscles of the throat. Hence the name, "Hydrophobia"—"fear of water." General convulsions followed, which were succeeded by paralysis and unconsciousness, and so he died.

A few generations later came the announcement from the laboratory of the great French Scientist Pasteur, that Rabies or Hydrophobia was preventable. Rabies is not conveyed from one person to another but is always the result of infection from a lower animal, usually the dog, although it may be transmitted by horses, cows, cats, goats or other animals.

The virus of the disease is found in the saliva and is often present several days or a week before the animal exhibits signs of "Madness." Infection is usually caused by the bite of a rabid animal, but it may be induced by the mere licking of a hand upon which there is a break in the skin.

Persons have been known to contract the disease by scratching their hands on the teeth of horses or cattle they were tending from some supposed other ailment.

The disease seldom makes its appearance in more than three weeks and sometimes as much as three months or more elapse before it is manifest.

One day last summer Jimmy Downs, 10 years old, ran crying to his mother, "A dog bit me," Dr. Carson enlarged the wound, which was in the hand, in order to make it bleed freely, washed it out well and cauterized it.

"What became of the dog?" he asked. "The dog has been shot," said Jimmy's father.

"Too bad, it was not captured alive," "Why captured?"

"Because in a few days we should have known definitely whether or not the dog was rabid. Now his head must be sent to the diagnostic laboratory and the 'Negri bodies' (the certain signs of rabies) which are seen by the microscope among the nerve cells of the brain may not be present, as they do not develop in the very early stages. Therefore, other methods which will take longer time will have to be pursued."

"Will the delay make any difference?"

"The earlier the diagnosis is made and the treatment begun, the better for the patient."

The Doctor sent for the dead dog, which proved to be a fox terrier. "Short haired animals are more apt to contract rabies," he said; "than the long haired type because there is less chance for the saliva to be wiped from the teeth of the biting animal, for the same reason there is greater danger from bites in the hand or face than through clothing."

The entire dog, being a small one, was packed in ice and expressed to a diagnostic laboratory.

Several days later a positive report came back.

Then Dr. Carson began giving Jimmy daily injections of the Pasteur emulsion which came regularly from the laboratory. At the end of three weeks he pronounced him out of danger of rabies.

"There are two forms of Rabies—the furious or excitable type and the dumb type; in the latter the lower jaw is early paralyzed and often hangs down, giving the animal the appearance of having a bone in his throat; while the saliva is virulent animals are dull, listless and do not bite.

The first change noticed in a dog affected with the furious type of Rabies, is usually restlessness and a difference in his disposition. An affectionate dog may exhibit surliness or an ill-natured dog manifest a sudden fondness for his master by frequent attempts to lick his hands and face.

The saliva is virulent at this stage. Beware of restlessness and unduly affectionate dogs, especially if you know they have been bitten.

Later they appear to become delirious, biting at imaginary things and darting in fear from commonplace objects; soon they begin to bite and snap at other animals; they run aimlessly for long distances biting and snapping at every thing in their way. They drip saliva, but do not always froth at the mouth.

The Board of Poor Directors are required by law to furnish Pasteur treatment free, for persons unable to pay for it.

For two years all dogs in the United States were required by law, to be muzzled. Hydrophobia would disappear from this country as it has from England, where such law exists.

"Do you consider goldenrod a flower or a weed?" "That depends, Algy. If you have been gathering some for me it's a flower."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

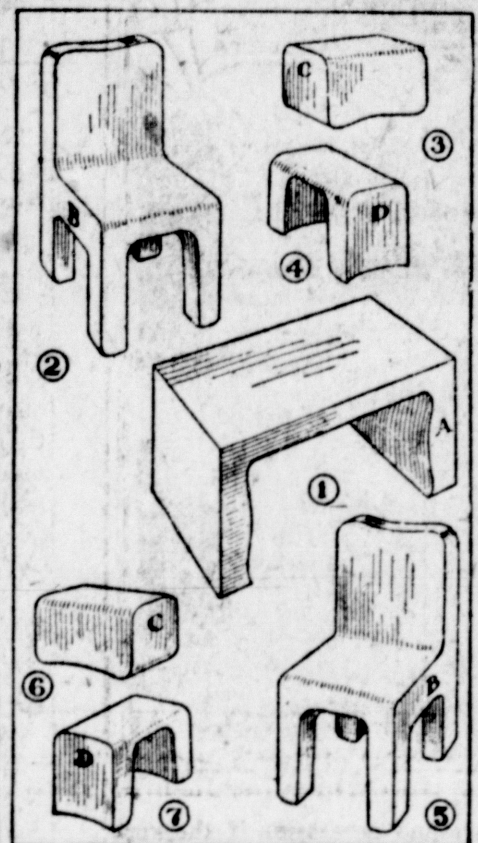

"Do you remember when you were first struck by my beauty?" "Yes, dearest. It was at the masked ball."—The Sun Dial.

Doll House Furniture for a Girl's Christmas

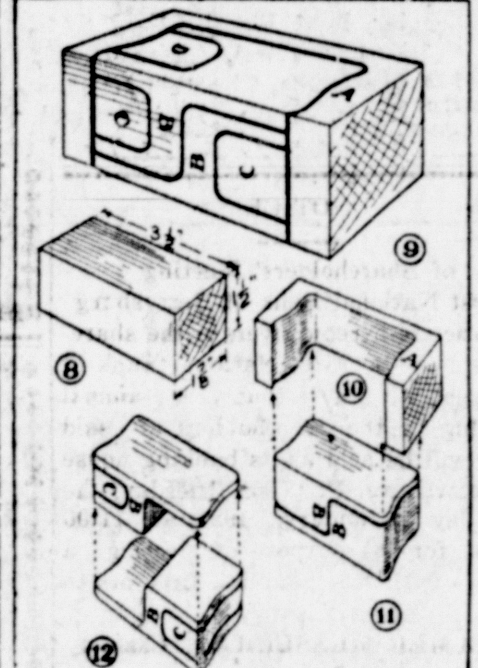

By DOROTHY PERKINS

(Copyright by A. Neely Hall)

This is one of the most unique puzzle blocks I have ever seen, and it makes a set of furniture that any girl would be glad to own for her doll house. Stand the seven pieces of furniture shown in Figs. 1 to 7 upon a table, and tell a friend to fit them together so as to form a symmetrical block of the dimensions shown in Fig. 8, and he will think that you are joking. It can be done, because the pieces were cut out of a block of the size shown. By comparing the letters which I have placed upon the pieces of furniture, with the letters upon the block in Fig. 9, you will see how the pieces fit together. It is best to mark out the pieces exactly as they are indicated upon the block in Fig. 9, before starting to cut. To save confusion only one cut is shown upon Figs. 11 and 12, in the order in which it should be made.

A small bracket saw, or what you probably know as a hand scroll saw, should be used for cutting out the pieces, because a very fine blade is necessary. The block should be of white pine, free from knots and cracks. Cut it to the dimensions shown in Fig. 8, and plane its surfaces straight and smooth; then upon the two face and two side surfaces, mark off the lines on which to cut. The corners are shown rounded because it is necessary to cut them that way in order to turn the corner with the saw blade. The first piece to cut out is the table (Fig. 1); this is marked A in Figs. 9 and 10. When you have removed this piece from the two ends and one side of the block, a block like that shown in Fig. 11 will remain.

The next step is to separate the remaining block into two equal parts by sawing along the heavy lines shown in Fig. 11 (Fig. 12). This pair of blocks, you will see by Figs. 2 and 5, are to form the two chairs, after more cutting has been done. The block C, (Figs. 3 and 6), which becomes a foot-stool, must be sawed out of each chair base, as indicated in Figs. 13 and 14. Then when this cutting has been done, block D must be cut out of the remaining portion of each chair base (Figs. 13 and 15), for tabourets (Figs. 4 and 7).

Unless you have done the marking and sawing very accurately, you will find it impossible to interlock the pieces except when placed in the positions they originally occupied. This will make a much better puzzle—harder to assemble the pieces.

AMAZING SUCCESS HAS BEEN ACHIEVED BY FAMOUS TANLAC

(Medical Advertising)

Facts About Tanlac

Fourteen million bottles sold in five years.

At present rate of sales grand total will reach 17,000,000 bottles by end of present year.

Now sold from coast to coast and from Gulf to Great Lakes, throughout the United States and Canada.

Tanlac is purely vegetable and is composed of the most beneficial roots and herbs known to science. Formula complies with all national and State pure food health laws of United States and Canada.

Absolute merit responsible for unprecedented success.

PUBLIC IS TOLD ABOUT TANLAC

Authorities Now Show Just What This Medicine Really Is.

Tanlac now has the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world, and the question naturally arises in the mind of the reader why this phenomenal success and why has this preparation so far outstripped all other medicines of its kind. It is only natural, therefore, that the manufacturers should offer some explanation to satisfy public interest.

Altogether there are ten ingredients in Tanlac, each of which is of recognized therapeutic value. Many of these ingredients have been individually known and used since civilization first began, and some of them have been used and prescribed by leading physicians everywhere, but until they were brought together in proper proportion and association, as in the Tanlac formula, humanity had not heretofore realized their full value and effect.

In referring to one of the more important ingredients of Tanlac, the Encyclopedia Britannica says: "It has been the source of the most valuable tonic medicines that have ever been discovered." In referring to others of the general tonic drugs contained in Tanlac the 13th Edition of Potter's Therapeutics, a standard medical text book, states that "they impart general tone and strength to the entire system, including all organs and tissues."

This same well-known authority in describing the physiological action of still another of the ingredients of Tanlac which is of value in treating what is commonly known as "a run-down condition," uses the following expression: "It is highly esteemed in loss of appetite during convalescence from acute diseases."

Influence of Elements
There are certain other elements in Tanlac which, because of the influence upon the appetite, digestion, assimilation and elimination, improve the nutrition and vital activity of all the tissues and organs of the body and produce that state of general tonic which is called health.

The United States Dispensary makes the following comment regarding another ingredient: "It may be used in all cases of pure debility of the digestive organs or where a general tonic impression is required. Dyspepsia, atonic gout, hysteria, and intermittent fever are among the many affections in which it has proven useful."

Tanlac was designed primarily for the correction of disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. At the same time, however, it is a powerful reconstructive tonic and body builder, for it naturally follows that any medicine that brings about proper assimilation of the food and the thorough elimination of the waste products must therefore have a far-reaching and most beneficial effect upon the entire system.

Although Tanlac's claims for supremacy are abundantly supported by the world's leading authorities, it is the people themselves who have really made Tanlac what it is. Millions upon millions have used it and have told Tanlac, the Celebrated Medicine Which Has Been Accomplishing Remarkable Results in the United States and Canada, Will Now Be Sold in Gettysburg By All Leading Druggists—Remarkable Sales Record of Fourteen Million Bottles Phenomenal and Unprecedented.

Tanlac, the celebrated medicine which has been accomplishing such remarkable results throughout the United States and Canada, and which has been having a phenomenal sale wherever it has been introduced, will now be sold in Gettysburg by all leading druggists—The amazing success achieved by this medicine in only five years' time is not only phenomenal, but unprecedented.

other millions what it has done for them. That is why Tanlac has become the real sensation of the drug trade in this country, and that is also why it is the most widely talked of medicine in the world today.

The discovery of Tanlac, the beginning of its manufacture, the establishment of the large and modern laboratories at Dayton, Ohio, occupying more than 60,000 feet of floor space, reads more like fiction than facts from latter-day commercial history. Its formula is purely ethical and complies with all national and State food and drug laws.

14 Million Bottles Sold
Although placed on the market but little more than five years ago, over fourteen million bottles have been sold, and its sales record probably has never been equaled in the history of the drug trade in America.

From coast to coast and from Gulf to Great Lakes, Tanlac is known and honored. Millions have taken it and have pronounced it the greatest medicine of all time. No matter where you go throughout the United States, whether East, West, North or South, Tanlac is a household word and is now unquestionably the most widely talked of medicine in the world today.

Briefly, this is the record of the truly marvelous medicine which will now be placed within the reach of every one. In only a few weeks' time it will be placed on sale in practically every large city, town, village, and hamlet throughout the entire section.

RETAILS 700 BOTTLES OF TANLAC IN ONE DAY

Tanlac Co., Atlanta, Ga.: We are now selling Tanlac at the rate of considerably over 2,000 bottles per week. One Saturday alone we sold through our eleven Atlanta stores approximately 700 bottles at retail, direct to consumers.

On referring to our records, we find that our sales since its introduction here, have reached the astonishing total of 80,000 bottles.

This record is far in excess of any we have ever made before in the distribution of any one preparation—in fact, we have never handled anything that even approaches it as a seller.

Thousands of our best people are now using the preparation with the most gratifying results, and we can only account for the phenomenal demand we are having by the fact that it is a medicine of extraordinary merit.

Lewiston, Me.

Tanlac Co., Atlanta, Ga.: The writer has been in the drug business in this city for the past forty years, serving as clerk in two of the best stores in town, before engaging in business on his own account. Has handled all kinds of preparations exploited as tonics and system builders; has seen scores of them come and go, but never in my career as a druggist has the undersigned seen the equal of Tanlac. It has done wonders for our people here. The best of folks in all walks of life buy and use it and the nice things which are said regarding the merit of it is certainly most gratifying to all connected with this place of business. It is indeed a source of satisfaction to assure the customer it will do the work and then have them come back and cheerfully verify the statement. This remedy is one of the few preparations behind which we have put our selling energy, because we are thoroughly convinced of its true merit. Since I have had the agency for Tanlac I have had three thousand one hundred and sixty-eight bottles.—F. W. BABCOCK.

Prominent Dealers All Over America Tell of Unprecedented Success of Tanlac.

The following are extracts from letters and telegrams from prominent dealers all over the United States and Canada telling in plain, cold figures, the magnitude of the remarkable growth and development of Tanlac throughout America.

Tanlac Co., Atlanta, Ga.:
The Tanlac sales have been remarkable. To date we have sold over five thousand bottles. The people of Portland who have used Tanlac speak very highly of its medicinal value and we have never received one word of complaint, but, on the other hand, many words of praise from our customers.

My sales of Tanlac have been larger than the sales of all other remedies put together. I have found your agency for Tanlac a source of pleasure to me because I have yet to find one single person that has not been benefited by taking this famous compound. I have one testimonial that I think is wonderful and that is of a woman that moved here for years a serious stomach trouble. After taking one bottle of Tanlac, her stomach trouble disappeared and she can assure you she is a very much pleased woman. Days after I heard of the most wonderful things for Tanlac. I appreciate the fact that it is my privilege to be the Tanlac agent for Westbrook, Me. because this famous remedy is doing such splendid things and giving so much complete satisfaction to those that seek it.

CHAS. A. VALLEE, JELLY
The Retail Store—St. Louis

Memphis, Tenn.:
Since taking on the agency, we have purchased in the aggregate 410,442 bottles of Tanlac. The continued enthusiastic sale of Tanlac over such a period is phenomenal, especially when you consider that for the first eight months in 1919 we purchased 164,600 bottles.

NAMING THE BABY

NAMING the baby is a delicate operation which requires more tact and finesse than discussing war with a total stranger. When a baby is born into the home it is carefully weighed by the proud father, who always throws in a couple of pounds for good measure, after which the entire family will begin to hunt around for a name that will satisfy everybody until the baby gets big enough to realize what has been attached to it.

Under our present mode of government the baby is not consulted about its name, but is obliged to accept any combination of letters which will keep an old maid aunt in good humor. Sometimes the baby is named after an ancestor who was an advocate of simplified spelling, and is thus given a short, jerky cognomen which follows it down to old age. Then also it is quite popular to hunt through the Bible for the correct spelling of Jeroboam, and after this is determined the child is riveted to it and compelled to go ents.

If the baby is a boy, the mother always insists upon naming it after the father, which is a splendid arrangement, as in after life the father is able to handle about four-fifths of the son's mail and get a good, clear idea of the modern love letter when it has the proper carburetor adjustment. In the case of a girl baby it is always better to pick out a name that has been worn for several years by some rich relative who is looking for a good place to leave a farm covered with ripening alfalfa and red pigs.

It is a trying task to name a baby when it is the seventeenth member of the family. Some people use the telephone directory, while others can be seen feverishly scanning the society columns in the effort to find some name which has not been tried on any of the other children. Benjamin Franklin was the seventeenth child, but he survived his name and grew to be a great, good man, which teaches us to forgive our parents for what we received.

SILK MILLS HARD HIT

Present Conditions Are Worst in Many Years.

Wilkes-Barre, Dec. 10.—With silk mills throughout the Wyoming Valley, the silk producing center of the State, operating on part time and with reduced forces, men prominent in the silk industry declare that present conditions are the worst that have been experienced in many years. Since the break in the Japanese raw silk market last spring when the price of raw silk dropped from $18 to $6 a pound conditions have become worse despite that raw silk is back to $7.50 a pound. The cause of present conditions is attributed to the lack of a demand for silk goods.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—"Hip liquor" will find no welcome at the Hamilton Club, Chicago's leading Republican club. This is the substance of a warning sent members by Robert W. Dunn, president.

Mr. Dunn points out that Federal ruling makes it a violation of the law to transport intoxicating liquor about the club premises.

GRAIN ELEVATORS—BUENOS AIRES—ARGENTINA—THIS GREAT AGRICULTURAL COUNTRY IS A RICH FIELD FOR AMERICAN ENTERPRISE

By FRANCIS H. SISSON,
Vice President Guaranty Trust

WE are entering the second stage of our post-war transition period. The momentum of economic forces generated and accelerated by the war is rapidly extending itself, as is evident from essential industrial activities in many lines. Inflation is being arrested; the era of extravagant expenditures is ending; devastated Europe is again beginning to produce, as shown by the rising tide of imports.

The peak of high prices in commodities generally has been passed, and readjustment to normal levels is under way. This, of course, will affect all business. There has been a steady decline in commodity prices as a whole from February of this year. In some lines these declines are more pronounced than others. In manufactured products this is true as yet in only slight degree, but it is certain to be reflected there also.

And in a declining market it is the part of wisdom to be short on commodities and long on credit. This is not the time to borrow in order to carry large stocks of goods or to stimulate the production of non-essential commodities. But commercial loans are not being denied to any industry that is endeavoring to increase the production of essential goods.

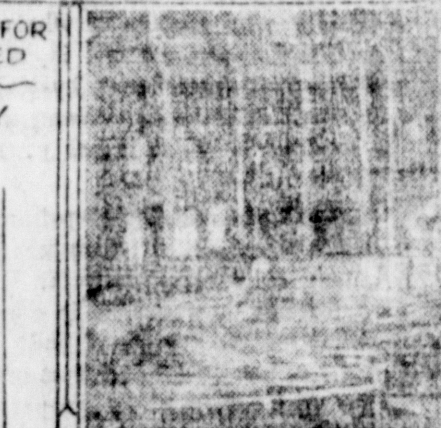

While the Federal Reserve Board has declined to rule on what are es-sentia and non-essential commodities, banks throughout the country have proceeded on the general basis that an essential commodity is one for which there is an urgent demand and which is indispensable to the welfare of the community and have encouraged the greater production of necessities.

Banks prosper most when industry is most prosperous. Their attitude in the present situation is wholly in the interest of the country's economic welfare.

COFFEE PLANTATION IN BRAZIL—A RICH COUNTRY AWAITING AMERICAN MERCHANTS

It would be well now to consider the trend of our foreign trade, for there is a close and vital relationship between the state of that trade and domestic prosperity. It is highly significant that the value of our exports for the seven months' period ended with July should amount to only 6 per cent more than the exports for the corresponding period of 1919, whereas imports increased in value 78 per cent. The excess of our exports over our imports for the first seven months of this year was practically only half of that for the corresponding period of last year.

While the decrease in our enormously favorable trade balance is altogether wholesome, in that to a large extent it measures the recovery of industries in Europe and is evidence that we are increasingly receiving payment for goods in goods rather than in credit, which is gradually but materially affecting the trend of prices in this country, it also serves to call attention to the vital fact that the time is approaching when America will be confronted with a contracted European market.

When that happens there may be serious consequences, if in the meantime other markets for American products are not found. And the best way for us to create new markets is to finance new enterprises and reconstruction work in Latin America, China and elsewhere. Trade follows investment, as England has demonstrated—to her huge profit.

There is another important element to consider. Within a few years we have produced a large merchant marine, a large fleet of ships, and a large number of seamen. The United States is now a maritime power. The use of this power is a matter of national importance. It is a matter of national importance to have a large fleet of ships, and a large number of seamen, to be able to transport our goods to other parts of the world. It is a matter of national importance to have a large fleet of ships, and a large number of seamen, to be able to transport our goods to other parts of the world.

It is a matter of national importance to have a large fleet of ships, and a large number of seamen, to be able to transport our goods to other parts of the world.

There is no longer any question about the imperative need for repelling the excess profits tax or of the practically universal demand from all substantial business interests for such action.

Even more vital than the reforming of our tax laws, however, is the transportation situation. The railroads have rightfully been returned to their owners, under provisions for ample Government supervision and fair treatment to the carriers as regards rates. But these favorable factors cannot immediately restore the credit of the railroads, and they cannot supply at once the freight cars, engines and terminal facilities so imperatively needed today. There is only one way, in fact, to overcome the serious handicaps confronting the carriers, and that is by the full co-operation of railway managers, railway employees, shippers and the public.

ELECTION NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to the stockholders of the First National Bank of Fairfield, Pa., that there will be a meeting held at this banking board in Fairfield, Pa., between the hours of 1:30 and 3:00 o'clock p. m. Tuesday, January 11th, 1921, for the purpose of electing seven Directors to serve for the ensuing year.

Give Her a HOOVER

Probably she has wanted a Hoover for a long time.

Why not make this holiday season long-remembered as "The Hoover Christmas?"

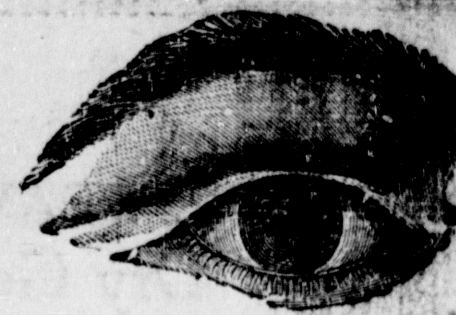

The Hoover electric suction sweeper is built to last and it is the only sweeper that beats, as it sweeps, as it cleans, and so prolongs rug life.

Your reward will be gratitude, rather than mere thanks, and the knowledge that you have lessened her household drudgery.

See DR. OASTER

The greatest blight on humanity is impaired eyesight. Nothing causes so much confusion and suffering and embarrassment as defective vision.

DR. OASTER, the Philadelphia eyesight specialist, with fifteen years practical experience and a graduate eyesight specialist who passed the state board examination invites the people of Gettysburg and vicinity who are afflicted or who are not getting satisfaction to consult him.

DON'T GIVE UP

No matter how skeptical you are or how many times you have failed to receive correct glasses or who has given up your case or the price you have paid, come to me. I am permanently located in Gettysburg—I am here every day and all day long. I can examine your eyes at night as well as in daytime—as I use artificial light for all examinations—I examine the eyes by looking into them, taking the exact focus and shape of the eye. Guaranteeing satisfaction in every case. I have examined thousands of eyes and will guarantee to correct the trouble in yours—all of my work is made especially by prescription. Don't neglect your eyes. Don't put it off. See me today.

You Won't Stay in Bed Long if You Rub on Quick-Acting Begy's Mustardine.

It does the work and cannot blister the tenderest skin.

Keep a box handy, for lumbago comes quickly and you can bet you'll want it to go quickly when it comes.

And it will go quicker than you ever hoped for and so will sore throat, chest colds, tonsillitis, pleurisy and bronchitis.

Begy's Mustardine often ends the misery and subdues the inflammation before most remedies you have heard about get started.

So why suffer for days while using day-acting remedies when rheumatic pains are eased, neuralgia banished and soreness and stiffness ended in double quick time.

For every ache and pain and to get influenza before it gets you, get Begy's Mustardine, in the yellow box—30 and 60 cents—"the Quickest Pain Killer on Earth."

SPECIAL SPECIAL TODAY AND TOMORROW

The critics all agree that it is a one hundred per cent production and the greatest picture Wallace Reid has ever appeared in. Don't miss it.

Another sizzling auto thriller! By the author of Wallace Reid's biggest hits, "The Roaring Road" and "Excuse My Dust." A romance of love, business and whizzing racers. And of lumbering motor trucks that helped make a speed-demon human.

See the hair-raising motor race that opened the new Los Angeles Speedway.

See the battle of men with a raging storm to save a sleeping valley from death!

See the breaking of the great Cabrillo dam!

Then see an unforgettable climax that called for a man—and found him on the job!

A picture that fairly bursts with power and excitement!

THE SERIAL SUPREME

"BRIDE 13" is so packed with thrills and action, with daring deeds, deep-dyed villainy and enduring love, that it is a question how to describe in a few words the wonder and interest of the picture.

First of all, for the first time the United States Navy co-operated with a film corporation, an entire fleet of warships and other units having taken part in the filming of the serial. Think of it—American dreadnoughts, cruisers, submarines, sub chasers, destroyers, seaplanes and "blimps," and other components of a modern fleet engaged exclusively for months in producing a great motion picture.

"The Love Expert"

We find Constance Talmadge in the role of Babs, a boarding school girl, whose school days end before the senior year, thanks to her delinquencies in the elementary course and her mania for self-instruction in the science of romance. Babs has other things to attend besides her self-instruction. She has the job of marrying off two sisters and an elderly aunt and compromising her father with matrimony. The picture was adapted from an original story and is said to be the most original and novel feature released in the last year.
